DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

www.UNiViDA.org

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

UNiViDA is the data controller (contact details above). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

UNiViDA complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data. Your data may be accessed by a UNiViDA Trustee outside of the EU but only under the same high standard of GDPR obligations explained above and only for these purposes.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To maintain our own accounts and records (including gift aid processing)
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To inform you of news, events, activities

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about events.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential. We will not share your data with third parties.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep your data no longer than reasonably necessary to maintain accounts and records of gifts. Specifically, we will keep donor records associated with gift aid claims, up to 5 years after the calendar year to which they relate.
